

3/

Monthly meetings were held in all kinds of places such as <sup>Kingbury Hall,</sup> the Oddfellows Hall, Orange Hall, Clarke Hall, Armouries Council Chambers and many members homes, the host of the month being responsible for the after meeting food, with the members present at the meeting supplying the seeds.

The Port Credit <sup>Branch</sup> took the name of ~~our~~ the youngest Lt. Col ever to serve in the C. I. F. Col. Alex Thomson <sup>D80 MC.</sup> won both his rank and his honours in the field. He was a Port Credit resident on his enlistment. Col. Alex. Thomson was killed in action and is was laid to rest in Mount St. Elai cemetery, France.

The general meetings continued to be held in all the aforementioned places until 1934 when our present building, a former Presbyterian Church was rented for a period of two years.